

The Choreographers

Charisse Parnell Director

Charisse Parnell created The Dance Collective in 2003 after working in Perth as a freelance dancer, teacher and choreographer for 10 years. Charisse has danced professionally for TV commercials, fashion parades, opening ceremonies and corporate shows, choreographed for The Veronica's, Perth band Calloway, musicals, school performances, summer camps in New York, Telethon and other high profile events such as the WA Youth Awards, StyleAid and the Oasis Media & Advertising Ball, and adjudicated festivals, talent shows and breakdance competitions. Her training in jazz, contemporary, hip-hop, tap and ballet includes the Contemporary Dance Centre (Perth), Broadway Dance Centre (New York) and Pineapple Studios (London). Charisse holds a Bachelor of Arts (Marketing and the Media), a Diploma of Education (Primary Teaching) and has won state-wide awards in recognition of the highly successful dance program she coordinated at Rossmoyne Senior High School from 2002-2006. As well as directing TDC, Charisse is also a freelance choreographer, lectures at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts and the University of Western Australia, writes for the Curriculum Council, delivers professional development workshops for teachers across WA and works as a consultant for the Department of Education & Training.

Andrea Chan

Andrea is a fresh choreographer with a distinctive smooth style. Her dance training began when she was 5, working through classical ballet grades for 8 years and jazz for 3 years, but her real passion for dance ignited when she trained under Charisse Parnell where she was involved in performances such as the WA Youth Awards, Youth Dance Advance, Star search, Wildcats Cheerleading, and Telethon. She has furthered her dance training, particularly in Hip-Hop, learning from the best choreographers in Australia such as JD, and US choreographers Randolph Winston and Rhapsody James and has made appearances at Metros City R&B Super club. She has also been featured as a dancer the recent Red Rooster TV commercial and was selected as a dancer to perform the opening act for US rapper Fabolous. As well as teaching hip hop classes and lyrical workshops at TDC, Andrea has taught and choreographed at Rossmoyne SHS, Applecross SHS and UWA.

Hayley Christian

Hayley has over 15 years dance teaching and performing experience in the styles of classical ballet, jazz, hip-hop, tap and contemporary dance and has taught at a number of venues around Perth. She received the majority of her training at the Irina Asotoff Ballet School and has continued her professional development by attending classes throughout Perth, Melbourne and London. Hayley holds an Advanced ballet certificate (BMAAD) and received the highest mark in Western Australia for both her Intermediate and Pre-Elementary ballet exams. Hayley has a Bachelor of Science with First Class Honours (Human Movement and Exercise Science) and has recently completed a PhD in Health Promotions at The University of Western Australia.

Rachel Doust

Rachel experienced her first dance class when she was 15 years of age. After one year of training she was accepted into the specialist dance course at John Curtin College of the Arts. After graduating from high school, Rachel became a founding company member at The Dance Collective and has immersed herself in hip-hop, training with some of the most famous US choreographers in the business including Rhapsody James, Kevin Maher and Luther Brown. In 2007, Rachel received a grant from WA Country Arts, allowing her to teach hip-hop to aboriginal children in the Pilbara living in a remote desert community. She has been selected to perform at numerous events including WA Youth Awards, R&B Superclub, Showcase National Dance Championships in Queensland, Oasis Media and Advertising Ball and Woodside Ball and Countdown Spectacular. In 2007 Rachel was a dancer for the Perth Glory. Rachel is currently in New York training full-time at the Broadway Dance Centre and will next year move to Melbourne to train at Dance World Studio.

Candice Elliott

Candice began training in ballet at the Graduate College of Dance. Discovering her love for other styles she then studied at Contemporary Dance Centre, John Curtin College of the Arts as a specialist dance student and The Dance Collective. Candice was also a member of Steps Youth Dance Company for six seasons. From 2004 to 2006 Candice travelled overseas to soak herself in the latest hip-hop styles, Jamaican Dancehall, Contemporary Ballet and Jazz classes at Danceworks, Pineapple Studio's and Huskies. Whilst in London she was invited to perform with one of London's most innovative hip-hop theatre companies, Impact Dance and took masterclasses with Krump Queen Miss Prissy and The Lion King choreographer on stage at the Lyceum Theatre. In 2007 Candice performed for the highly successful Tomb Raider Live attraction at Adventure World and travelled with Impact Dance to Turkey take part in the Escape holiday, learning from the worlds best Hip-Hop, Salsa, Jazz, Soca, Bashment and Disco teachers.

Kane Morriss

Kane began dancing from an early age and is trained in contemporary, jazz, ballet and hip-hop. Before joining The Dance Collective, Kane studied at The Graduate Collage of Dance in Ballet and Stage Door School of Performing. Kane has also been a member of STEPS Youth Dance Company in the 2007 production 'DASH' and Playlovers production 'Beauty and the Beast' at the Regal Theatre in 2008. Kane has also performed at WA Youth Awards, Rock Eisteddfod and WAMI Fashion Parade. In April 2008, Kane travelled to Sydney to extend his dance training at Brent Street Studios, Legs On the Wall and Sydney Dance Company. Kane currently teaches at primary schools through the Active After-Schools Community Program by the Department of Sport and Recreation and teaches the Boys Hip-Hop class at The Dance Collective.

Rita N.

Ugandan born Choreographer/Dancer Rita N. has been teaching and performing dance internationally and Australian wide for several years now. Her dance roots originate from traditional African dancing, which was then incorporated into the growing trends of Hip-Hop and Jamaican Dancehall as her dance experience progressed. Rita N.'s desire for growth further lead her to move to the USA and be trained by world renowned choreographers such as Rhapsody (Beyonce), Luam (Rihanna, Kevin Lyttle), Marvelous (Sean Paul, Gwen Stefani), Tweetie (Oprah, MTV), and Bev Brown. There she also had the opportunity to work with Virgin/Capitol records recording Artist Che'Nelle. Rita N. is now back in Australia as a freelance choreographer and dance instructor. Her teaching across Perth includes classes at King St Arts Centre; Vogue Entertainment; The Dance Collective; thestudio.com.au; dance courses held at Curtin University and numerous national dance workshops.

Alex Stokeld

Alex has been a company member of The Dance Collective since its foundation in 2003. Noticed as a stand out performer, Alex has been selected to perform at the WA Youth Awards, Oasis Media and Advertising Ball, Woodside Ball, Red Rooster Commercial Series, Starlight Charity Function, Perth Cup, Myer 3 Weeks in New York promotion launch with Carlson Kresley, Perth band Calerway's latest video clip, Telethon, Wildcats Cheerleading Competition and the Countdown Spectacular at Burswood Dome. Alex has travelled to Sydney to participate in the Australian Youth Dance Festival and taken classes at Brent Street Studios and Sydney Dance Company. She was also a performer for the Perth Glory 2007 season. This year Alex has completed a degree in Human Movement at UWA and in 2009 is travelling to Melbourne to further her dance training and experience through her acceptance into a Diploma of Dance at Dance World Studios.

Erin Tyrie

Erin's love for dance began when she was 7 years old. Growing up in the Pilbara, Erin experienced styles of ballet, tap and jazz. She moved to Perth in 2003 and expanded into contemporary and hip-hop with The Dance Collective and gained an A+ exam result in both the Bronze and Bronze Star levels in Latin Ballroom. Erin recently travelled to QLD with two other teachers to compete in the National Showcase Dance Championships. Erin was selected to be filmed as a dancer for a Red Rooster Commercial Series, danced at the Oasis media and Advertising ball and recently a private wedding. Erin will complete a Bachelor of Primary Education mid 2009 and is bringing her love for teaching and dance to The Dance Collective. Erin has also been teaching and choreographing at various private and public high schools, primary schools and private dance studios around Perth for the past year.

From Darkness to a Brighter Day

Part A - Senior Contemporary

Part B - Intermediate Contemporary

Inspired by the story of Daniel Johns, lead singer of Australian band Silverchair. Whilst the band's fourth album was receiving worldwide accolades Johns was battling depression and anxiety 'It felt like everything was so out of control around me.' Three years later John’s outlook turned and he wrote breath-taking, beautiful music on the albumn Diorama. He had found a brighter day.

Choreography: Rachel Doust & Erin Tyrie

Music: Red Hot - Jurassic 5 & Whoomp There It Is - Tag Team

Talent vs Technique Dance Hall

Who’s the better dancer? This is a debate between dancers, instructors and spectators from all walks of life. Is a trained dancer better than a street freestyler? Or does one’s ability to follow rhythm override another’s ability to follow counts? Does pure discipline overrule dreaming? Or is our indifference the key to the perfect dancer? Let us show you how by learning from each other’s walks of life how we have widened our dance collective.

Choreography: Rita N.

Music: Layaway Love - Notch ft. Fatman Scoop, Whatcha Think About That - Pussycat Dolls ft. Missy Elliot & Don’t Stop The Music (soca remix) - Rihanna ft. Mr Slaughter (Music edited and arranged by Hans Fiancé)
